ॐ namō bhagavatē rud'rāya || 1 ||

Om. Prostrations to Bhagavān Rudra.

ॐ namas'tē rud'ra man'yava , utō ta , iṣhavē namaḥa |

namas'tē , as'tu dhan'vanē bāhubh'yā muta tē namaḥa || 2 ||

All this is Yours, “not mine”: this anger within, these sharp hurtful words and actions, this potential violence in me, this hurting propensity in both arms.

yā ta , iṣhuśh' śhivatamā śhivam' babhūva tē dhanuḥu |

śhivā śharav'yā yā tava tayā nō rud'ra mṛḍaya || 3 ||

This cutting sharpness in my speech & actions, may it become completely at ease and peace. May my violent propensity become non-violent & pacifying. May my excessive, futile plans become at peace, so that all around are pleased and feel at ease.

yā tē rud'ra śhivā tanūraghōrā (a)pāpakāśhinī |

tayā nas'tanuvā śhan'tamayā giriśhan'tābhi chākaśhīhi || 4 ||

Henceforth: may we not sin. So, may we not have to fearfully look at the reflection of our own sins (reflection = natural calamities). May we speak soothing words. May we look at everything with love, and so doing, experience inner peace.

yāmiṣhuñ' giriśhan'ta has'tē bibhar'ṣhyas'tavē |

śhivān' girir'ra tān' kuru mā

hig'm' sī[fp]' puruṣhañ' jagate || 5 ||

Henceforth: may our violently aggressive power re-convert itself and manifest as passion to do sēvā – everything that is blessing, ennobling, elevating and selfless. May we reassure humans and others both by loving word and non-violent loving action.

śhivēna vachasāt' tvā giriśhāch'chhā vadāmasi |

yathā nas' sar'vamij' jagadayak'ṣhmagm' sumanā , asate || 6 ||

May we speak blemish-less, loving, soothing speech. May we be rid of all kinds of ill-feelings. May we beget positive thoughts. May our thinking not be affected by even the slightest negativity.

adh'yāvōchadadhivak'tāp' prathamō daiv'yō bhiṣhake |

ahigeśh'cha sar'vāññ' jam'bhayan'thsar'vāśh'cha

yātudhān'yaha || 7 ||

Advocate, designated spokesman, very first deity, Doctor! Please grind to dust our negative mind-set and mental diseases!

asau yas'tām'rō , aruṇa , uta babh'rus' su maṇ'galaḥa |

yē chēmāgm' rud'rā , abhitō dik'ṣhuśh' śhritās'

sahas'raśhō (a)vai śhāgm'hēḍa , īmahē || 8 ||

Just as a single light shatters darkness all around, we worshipfully pray to the auspicious light within us to show itself. May it shatter the numerous negative thought-reactions arising from external stimuli.

asau yō (a)vasar'pati nīlag'rīvō vilōhitaha |

The power which sustains our breath, invisibly moves across the inner sky of our body, the chitta-ākāśha, from the violet to red, from head to toe.

utainan' gōpā , adrśhan'na drśhan'nudahār'yaḥa |

utainam' viśh'vā bhūtāni sa drśh'tō mṛḍayāti naḥa || 9 ||

As and when the dawn of the inner sun occurs, we burst out of our limited identities and rejoice at feeling one with the whole Creation.

namō , as'tu nīlag'rīvāya sahas'rāk'śhāya mīḍhuṣhē |

athō yē , as'ya sat'tvānō (a)han' tēbh'yō (a)karan'namaha || 10 ||

My entire being is surrendered for the One who is as vast as the sky, who is a witness to all my actions with innumerable eyes, who is the most bountiful bestower. My being is also surrendered to serve His sāttvika devotees, wherever they may be. By doing so, I merge my limited identity with the unlimited one and thus become unlimited myself.

pra muñ'cha dhan'va nas'tvamu bhayōrārt'ni yōrj'yām ।

yāśh'cha tē has'ta , iśha va[fp]' parā tā bhagavō vapa ॥ 11 ॥

We hereby unstring our bow (spinal column) from the tendency to demand excessively from others. We hereby cast away our resolutions designed to deprive others of their property or peace of mind.

avatat'tya dhanus'tvagn' sahas'rāk'śha śha tēśhudhē ।

niśhīr'ya śhal'yānām' mukhā śhivō nas' sumanā bhava ॥ 12 ॥

Now onwards, all our offensive powers will be used for defending those who need it. Our violence will be rendered powerless by blunting its sharpness. Our minds will become conducive towards others so that we will receive their blessings in turn.

vij'yan' dhanu[hk]' kapar'dinō viśhal'yō bāṇavāgm' , uta ।

anēśhan' nas'yēśha va , ābhuras' ya niśhañ'ga thiḥi ॥ 13 ॥

Now onwards, all our offensive & oppressive powers will be rendered useless or harmless. We 'empty' our scabbard (we discard our body-feeling) which is at the root of all these violent thought-powers.

yā tē hētir'mīḍhuṣh'tama has'tē babhūva tē dhanuḥu |
 tayā (a)s'māne viśh'vatas'tvama yak'ṣhmayā parib'bhuja || 14 ||

Henceforward, may we all become mentally & vocally generous, respecting others' points-of-view, giving praise & credit where it is due, freely giving of our time, money, energy as per appropriateness, need and occasion. May we be always alert with alacrity such that negative thoughts (which are the origin of all diseases) cannot enter.

namas'tē , ast'vāyudhāyānātatāya dhṛṣh'ṇavē |

ubhābh'yāmuta tē namō bāhubh'yān' tava dhan'vanē || 15 ||

This potential for destruction (in me) is Yours, not mine! The violent quality in these hands and mind is Yours, not mine!

pari tē dhan'vanō hētiras'mān' vṛṇak'tu viśh'vataḥa |

athō ya , iṣhudhis'tavā (ā)rē , as'man'ni dhēhi tam || 16 ||

Since we have cast out negativity from our mind-sets, now onwards, all negative thoughts and actions coming at us will bypass us. The reactions of our previous negative thoughts (that we were destined to suffer) have also been kept down by the side for the time being and will remain inactive as long as we remain positive.

namas'tē , as'tu bhagavan' viśh'vēśh'varāya mahādēvāyat'

Our future calamities are softened or will bypass us.

expansiveness & end of 'body feeling'.

It is very noble and elevating to ask anything for the purpose of giving it away to those who need it and are not in a position to obtain it.

Chamaka Anuvākaḥ 10

Various types of cattle – which represented the economic power of a rich and wealthy person in Vedic times – are demanded from God only to give away in yajña to others to earn a livelihood.

full life-term, life-force, excretory system, the circulatory system for nourishing all the parts of the body in equal and appropriate measure, eyes, ears, mind, power of speech, soul, the yajña (sacrifice, sēvā, etc.) itself with its benefits.

This is the high point of the Chamakam where, by giving away our entire being, the yajña itself and its benefits in yajña, we attain the state of 'no-desires-no-demands' and self-realization.

Chamaka Anuvākaḥ 11

Having experienced the Ultimate Absolute upon cessation of all 'desires-demands', we identify with the Creator and His Creation. With this profound experience, we now state through the words "cha mē": "The 'One' too am I, 'three' too am I, 'five' too am I...", the number 'One' representing the Supreme Bramhan and the other numbers symbolizing His myriad manifestations in Creation.

May we think, grow, speak & act lovingly; in doing so, may we shine spiritually & make our forefathers glow with pride.

ॐ śhā-n'tīsh' śhā-n'tīsh' śhā-n'tiḥi ||

Peace to the physical-body, mental-body (mind) and causal-body.

Samasta Lōkāḥa Mantra

Prayer for Peace

ॐ svas'tip' prajābh'ya[fp]' paripālayan'tām ।

May the common people (subjects) be governed and nourished by the rulers. Let there be happiness and peace for the people.

nyāyēna mār'gēṇa mahīm' mahīśhā-ḥa ॥

May those who rule the land, tread the path of justice.

May knowledge and the teachers of knowledge be ever well.

samas'ta lōkās' sukhinō bhavan'tu ॥ (3x)

May all the worlds be happy.

ॐ śhā-n'tiśh' śhā-n'tiśh' śhā-n'tiḥi ॥

Peace for the body, mind and soul.

“We should not neglect the Vedas. The secret of the entire creation is contained in them. They reveal to us the goal and purpose of life. The Vedas are replete with divine mysteries and deep spiritual truths. Rudram forms a very important section of Kṛṣṇa Yajur Veda. Rudram is generally understood to be a prayer to Lord Rudra. In fact, it is the essence of all the Vedas, viz. Ṛg Veda, Yajur Veda, Sāma Veda and Atharvaṇa Veda.”

Bhagavān Sri Sathya Sai Baba,
Ati Rudra Mahā Yajña, August 2006
(Sanātana Sārathī of September 2006)

In this chanting booklet, the text of the Sri Rudram is presented in RCCS format (Roman Coloured Coding Script), along with the majestic inner meaning of its mantras.

This visual and intuitive coding of the rhythm and the tune of the Veda mantras will help you in your learning and chanting of this most powerful and sacred Vedic chant.

It enables everyone to access Vedic chanting and is our humble attempt to act upon Swāmi's Saṅkalpa (Divine Wish) that everybody should learn and chant the Vedas, irrespective of religion, nationality or caste.
